At the Young Writers’ Academy, we will...

- Learn about college and career options
- Learn the do’s and don’ts of college essay writing
- Brainstorm ideas
- Read sample essays
- Address UC prompts and prompts from other colleges
- Receive feedback and revise with guidance
- Complete application-ready essays
- Learn about financial aid issues

“Instead of dreading the coming semester, I’m beginning to look at it as more of an opportunity to hone my writing skills…” – Jacob

“I have learned so much about writing and feel more confident about the future…” – Michelle

WHO CAN ATTEND THE ACADEMY?
The College Essay Writing Academy is open to students from any Inland Area High School, who will be in grades 11-12 in the 2016-2017 school year and would like assistance crafting written responses for college applications and scholarships. Attendance does not guarantee college acceptance.

WHAT IS THE ACADEMY ABOUT?
The College Essay Writing Academy will be held on the Los Osos High School campus. During week one, we will explore college and career options, potential majors, financial aid issues, and brainstorming ideas for college essays, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. During week two, we will brainstorm and draft college personal statements, with emphasis on the UC and Common Application prompts, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Students may sign up for one or both weeks.

WHAT SHOULD STUDENTS BRING TO THE ACADEMY?
Students should bring a journal or spiral notebook and pens and/or pencils. Students are welcome to bring laptops, tablets, snacks, and drinks.
