

INLAND AREA WRITING PROJECT

2021 HIGH SCHOOL OUTREACH PROGRAM

COLLEGE READING AND WRITING READINESS
THROUGH THE LENS OF THE ANALYTICAL WRITING PLACEMENT EXAM (AWPE)

The Inland Area Writing Project at the University of California, Riverside would like to extend an invitation to your teachers and students for our 2021 High School Outreach Program, currently in its 28th year!

- A PROGRAM DESIGNED TO HELP SCHOOLS AND INSTRUCTORS PREPARE THEIR STUDENTS FOR THE RIGORS OF COLLEGE-LEVEL READING AND WRITING
- GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS TO EXPERIENCE ASPECTS OF COLLEGE-LEVEL READING AND WRITING
- NEW FULLY ONLINE PROCESS (VIA GOOGLE DOCS/GOOGLE DRIVE).
*This process does not require google classroom or Gmail accounts.
- COST FOR PARTICIPATION: $15/PER STUDENT
- CONSTRUCTIVE & PERSONALIZED FEEDBACK AND RECOMMENDATIONS PROVIDED BY A UCR INSTRUCTOR FOR EACH STUDENT
- ACCESS TO AN ONLINE VIDEO PRESENTATION WITH INFORMATION ABOUT READING/WRITING STANDARDS AND EXPECTATIONS AT THE COLLEGE LEVEL AND STRATEGIES FOR THIS PARTICULAR GENRE AND EXAM

In this program, high school juniors take a practice Analytical Writing Placement Exam, which the University of California has been using for entering freshmen since 1987. The practice exams are assessed analytically by University of California professionals who teach college-level composition courses. The evaluation aims at helping each individual student understand college expectations for reading/writing competence and to help them improve through personalized feedback on their writing and through access to a video presentation that provides them with information and strategies for meeting college-level expectations for academic reading and writing.
